

BOUQUET

VINTAGE CHARM IN A MODERN DESIGN

The Bouquet tableware collection offers a fresh nod to the past. With its porcelain base, cheerful floral motifs and subtle moulded relief, this tableware is reminiscent of classic English porcelain, but with a contemporary twist. Not exaggerated or ostentatious, but playful and elegant. Ideal for those who love character on the table without resorting to clichés.

FAMILIAR AND REFRESHING

The soft colours and floral details give Bouquet its recognisable look. The modern finish ensures comfort in everyday use and is also dishwasher safe. The shapes are classic, but the whole feels light and lively.

AFFORDABLE ORIGINALITY

Bouquet is an accessible way to add colour and personality to your cupboard. Made from sturdy porcelain, surprisingly affordable and designed to last. A touch of retro, totally contemporary

MIX & MATCH TO TASTE

From dinner plates to serving bowls, from cups to mugs: Bouquet is a wide collection in which each piece is available separately. This allows you to put together your ideal combination, or give just that one cup as a gift with a wink. Ideal for brunches, tea moments or a cheerful, casual table setting.
