

MAGMA

ORGANIC LINES, CONTEMPORARY STYLE

Magma is a porcelain tableware series with character. The dark color, subtle texture, and slightly organic shapes give each piece a natural look that feels both modern and artisanal. The combination of refined lines and a slightly rougher surface makes Magma a distinctive series for those who love contemporary table presentation.

TEXTURE THAT CONTINUES TO FASCINATE

The dark-colored glaze has a subtle, speckled texture that looks slightly different on each piece. This makes Magma a lively tableware that visually enhances dishes while bringing calm to the table.

ORGANIC SHAPES WITH CHARACTER

The coupe shape and soft asymmetry create a sense of movement and authenticity. The delicate handles on the cups and mugs enhance the elegant look. The tableware has a traditional feel, but combines beautifully with contemporary glassware and cutlery.

STRONG AND USER-FRIENDLY

Made from high-quality porcelain, Magma is both strong and practical to use. Suitable for the dishwasher and microwave, without compromising on appearance. A tableware line that can be seen every day.
